"It is a well known Minhag that beginning on TU (15th) B' Av it is customary to begin extending wishes for a K'seeva V'chaseema Tova. Throughout the year the Velzer Rebbe was Noy-heg to eagerly look forward to numerous other occasions during the year. Between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, while everyone was doing tshuvah, the Velzer Rebbe would also do weightlifting exercises to develop the strength to shake the (Lulav) and oversized esrog he would pick from his private tree. From the shabassim of Parshas Breishis to Parshas Va'yayro the Velzer Rebbe would eat only salt free foods to prepare for absorbing the shock when reading the portion of the Torah where Lot's wife looked behind her and turned into a chunk of salt. From Rosh Chodesh Kislev until Chanukkah he would send Kvitlech to the Kotel in Israel every day to prepare for participating in Chanukkah Kvitlech. From TU B'shvat until Tisha B'Av when the Velzer Rebbe would begin learning a mesechta, he would begin at the second Perek so that, chas v'shalom, he should not be tempted to make a siyum during the 9 days. The Rebbe would complete those Mesechtes in the days from after Tisha B'Av until Tu B'Av on which day the Rebbe would make a grand siyum and seudah. This became to be known as the Siyum TU-TU."-Rabbi Mel Teitelbaum
